

FERPA Release Form

Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, the College cannot disclose personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records without the student's written consent, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. A parent does not have the automatic right to view his/her child's records without the expressed written consent of the student, unless that parent can provide proof that the student is still a dependent for income tax purposes.
