

Congressional Internship – Office of United States Senator Angus S. King., Jr.

Job Description:

Senator Angus King’s Washington, D.C. office is looking for interns for the SUMMER 2023 semester. The office offers a competitive paid fulltime and part-time internship program for college students and recent college graduates with a record of academic excellence and a strong interest in public service. Interns in Washington, D.C. are fully integrated into day-to-day office operations. They are entrusted with a wide range of responsibilities including legislative research, drafting letters, greeting constituents, monitoring the media, giving tours, and providing administrative support. Our “Kingterns” are provided a unique opportunity to learn first-hand how a Senate office operates while simultaneously working on behalf of the people of Maine. Applicants with Maine ties are strongly preferred.

To apply, please visit <http://www.king.senate.gov/services/internship> and fill out a DC Office Application. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact our Intern Coordinators, Laura Fusco and Meg Parker, at 202-224-5344 or at internships_DC@king.senate.gov. Deadline for SUMMER applications is MARCH 3, 2023.
